- 9:00 A.M. - Tours of the 1710 Weeks Brick House and colonial-era-inspired herb gardens.
- 10:00 A.M. - Guest speaker Richard Irons, New England's foremost restoration mason, presents an illustrated program on the conservation of antique masonry, followed by a tour of the brick-and-mortar conditions and features of the Weeks Brick House. Don't miss this opportunity to hear the wisdom of a master craftsman who has restored brickwork at many of our nation's most revered historic landmarks - including at the Weeks Brick House.
- 12:00 Noon - Lunch at the Greenland Church Parish Hall. (Advance registration required.)
- 1:00 P.M. - Business meeting. (Greenland Church Parish Hall.)

Sssshhh! ... It's a 'Silent Auction'...

Yes, it's a "silent auction" on Saturday, September 15, but it's no secret that our Weeks Brick House auction mastermind has worked tirelessly to secure an enticing array of items for this year's fund-raising event. Past auctions featured all manner of offerings, so don't miss this one!
