Schedule of Events

Due to the vagaries of human existence, this and all schedules are subject to adjustment!

Saturday, September 14

- 1:00 P.M. - Welcome & registration at the 1710 Weeks Brick House, Weeks Ave. (off Rte. 33), Greenland, N.H.
- 1:00 P.M. - Gift Shop open!
- 1:00 - 5:00 P.M. - Tours of the 1710 Weeks Brick House, gardens, and walking trails.
- 1:00 - 5:00 P.M. - Silent Auction Fund-Raiser.
- 2:00 P.M. (afternoon option) - Group visit to Woodman Museum in Dover, N.H., four buildings (1675, 1813, 1818, & 1825) that hold collections of natural history, local history, and art. (Limit 15; $10 payable at the tour.)
- 5:00 - 7:00 P.M. - Wine & Cheese Social in the gardens (Advance reservation required.)

Sunday, September 15

- 9:00 A.M. - Welcome & registration at the Weeks Brick House, Weeks Ave. (off Rte. 33), Greenland, N.H.
- 9:00 A.M. - Gift Shop open!
- 9:00 A.M. - Tours of the 1710 Weeks Brick House and colonial-era-inspired herb gardens.
- 10:00 A.M. - "Taverns, Travelers, & Tanbark: The Roots of Popular Culture in New England." Circus/vaudeville scholar/performer Reginald W. Bacon reaches back further in this program that explores the spread of a new popular culture at the turn of the 19th century, including the first circuses in the Portsmouth area; the role of itinerant performers; and Greenland's own export, Ebenezer Woodbury, the itinerant juggler who was also known to swallow small knives ... and live kittens!
- 12:00 Noon - Lunch at the Greenland Church Parish Hall. (Advance registration required.)
- 1:00 P.M. - Business meeting. (Greenland Church Parish Hall.)

Sssshhh! ... It's a 'Silent Auction'...

Yes, it's a "silent auction" on Saturday, September 14, but it's no secret that our Weeks Brick House auction mastermind has worked tirelessly to secure an enticing array of items for this year's fund-raising event. Past auctions featured all manner of offerings, so don't miss this one!
